MARCH 2016

Message from the President:

February, even with an extra day, flew by! Tax season is a busy time of year for us all! A big thank you to all who volunteered for the Habitat for Humanity event in January and the Bowl for Kids' Sake event in February. Working together, we can make a difference in our community. Event photos have been posted to the Chapter Facebook page.

TSCPA News and Information

Tax Season Interview Contact List

During tax season, TSCPA builds a volunteer list of CPAs willing to do newspaper/on-camera media interviews. If you know someone who has the time and would be a great candidate to represent the Society, please contact Kari Owen at kowen@tscpa.net or 972-687-8688. She will contact those recommended and obtain their commitment to participate, which often requires an immediate response to interview requests – especially during a time of high media interest such as tax season. TSCPA has a database of talking points to assist with media interviews and can also help with members' presentation needs (PowerPoint documents, brochures and handouts, etc.).

Business and Industry Center Keeps You in the Know

Are you looking for a way to stay up to date with the latest industry news or to keep in contact with other business and industry CPAs? If so, TSCPA has the perfect tool for you: the Business and Industry Center under the Resource tab on the TSCPA website. There you will find member profiles, social networking and more.

Lecturer

The School of Accounting in the Rawls College of Business at Texas Tech University is accepting applications for a full-time Lecturer beginning Fall of 2016. Qualified candidates must have the potential for excellence in teaching undergraduate accounting courses. Qualified candidates must possess a master degree in accounting (or, a doctoral degree), hold professional accounting certification, and have obtained professional experience in accounting. Other responsibilities include participation in department and college service activities. Salary and benefits are competitive with equivalent positions. Interested applicants should submit a letter of interest and curriculum vita when applying online at <http://www.texastech.edu/careers> using the position number 6724BR. For additional information, please contact the Chair of the Recruiting Committee by emailing ralph.viator@ttu.edu. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Established in 1923, Texas Tech University (TTU) is a public research university in Lubbock, Texas. TTU's enrollment exceeds 35,000, including students from all 50 states and more than 100 foreign countries. The Rawls College of Business currently enrolls more than 4,000 undergraduates, 800 master-level students, 60 doctoral students, and boasts the first separately accredited School of Accounting in Texas. The Carnegie Foundation classifies TTU as having high research activity. The TTU Red Raiders are charter members of the Big 12 Conference and compete in Division I varsity sports. The Lubbock metropolitan area is home to more than 300,000 residents and is nicknamed the Hub City due to being the economic, educational, cultural, and health care hub for West Texas.

As an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, Texas Tech University is dedicated to the goal of building a culturally diverse faculty committed to teaching and working in a multicultural environment. We actively encourage applications from all those who can contribute, through their research, teaching, and/or service, to the diversity and excellence of the academic community at Texas Tech University. The university welcomes applications from minorities, women, veterans, persons with disabilities, and dual-career couples.
